

BEHAVIOR AND EFFORT RULES

1. Every student can earn a “Daily Credit” in Language Arts, Math, Science, and Social Studies. Each room will have a chart posted for every class that meets in that room.
2. Any day that a student's behavior and work effort reaches or exceeds the minimum standard in that class, the student is awarded a “Daily Credit”. (Four per day, one from each teacher)
3. “Bruin Bucks” can be issued to any student, at any time, for demonstrating an “extra effort” or positive behavior. A “Bruin Buck” can be issued by any staff member of Oxford Central School.
4. Every five “Bruin Bucks” can be converted into a “Daily Credit” on any one chart.
5. Any student, for any reason, who must serve an office detention will lose a “Daily Credit” from all charts.
6. Any student who is suspended will lose three credits from all charts and is not eligible to receive any credits while suspended.
7. Any student who is suspended more than once in any marking period will lose three credits times the number of suspensions for that marking period.
8. At the end of the marking period, the total number of credits is added up and an overall average is struck. Any student with an average of 87% or greater is eligible to participate in the marking period reward.
9. At the end of THIRD MARKING PERIOD, the overall average is determined and any student whose Behavior and Effort grade is 87% or higher is eligible to participate on the Class Trip.
10. At the end of the FOURTH MARKING PERIOD, the total number of credits is added up and an overall average is struck. Any student with an average of 87% or greater is eligible to participate in Field Day activities.
11. The school administration reserves the right to revoke any student from participating on any class trip for a discipline reason at any time.
