

EDUCATION

1979-1983 B.S. in Secondary Education/ Social Studies, East Stroudsburg University
1989-1991 M.A. in History, East Stroudsburg University
1999-2001 Med. In Educational Administration, East Stroudsburg University

EMPLOYMENT

2006-present Chief School Administrator, Oxford Central School, Oxford, NJ
Duties include curriculum, staff, building supervision, cafeteria duty, sweeping hallways, bringing in the mail and many, many other things!

2003-2006 Supervisor of Instruction, Kittatinny Regional High School, Newton, NJ
My responsibilities at KRHS involve overseeing four departments; World Languages, Business, Social Studies, and English. I manage the administration of GEPA and the Kittatinny Testing Program, serve as the NCLB /Title I Director, coordinate curriculum with our elementary sending districts, supervise the Gifted and Talented and the ELL programs and oversee the daily routine of the four departments.

2000-2003 Social Studies Teacher, Kittatinny Regional High School, Newton, NJ

1985-2000 Social Studies Teacher/ Lead Teacher, Roxbury High School, Succasunna, NJ

My responsibilities included teaching numerous subjects, development and implementation of curriculum, organizing daily activities and monthly meetings of the Social Studies Department, and taking part in weekly administrative meetings.

AWARDS

Roxbury High School Teacher of the Year
New Jersey Girl's Soccer Coaches Association Coach of the Year, 1996
Daily Record and Star-Ledger Morris County Girls' Soccer COY
Geraldine R. Dodge Foundation Grant Award Winner, 1990
Selected Presenter, "Social Studies and Inclusion." 2001 NJEA Convention
Selected Presenter, "Effective Mentoring", 2003 NJEA Convention
Princeton University Teacher Recognition Award Recipient, 1996
Who's Who in American Education, 1994, 1996, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2005
Wrote winning 2005-2006 NJ Governor's School of Excellence Award for Kittatinny Regional H.S.

PERSONAL

I have been married for more than 25 years to my high school sweetheart;
I have three wonderful children, Matthew, Sarah and Jessica;
We have two dogs (Merlin and Rudy) and a cat named Bandit