

ELECTION AND DUTIES OF PRESIDENT – VICE PRESIDENT

The president shall preside at all meetings of the board and shall perform other duties as directed by statute, state department of education regulations, and this board. In carrying out these responsibilities, the president shall:

- A. Sign the instruments, acts, and orders necessary to carry out state requirements and the will of the board;
- B. Consult with the chief school administrator on the board's agendas;
- C. Appoint board committees and chairpersons;
- D. Call such meetings of the board as he/she may deem necessary upon at least two days' notice;
- E. Be an ex officio member of all board committees;
- F. Confer with the chief school administrator on crucial matters which may occur between board meetings;
- G. Be responsible for the orderly conduct of all board meetings.

As presiding officer at all meetings of the board, the president shall:

- A. Call the meeting to order at the appointed time;
- B. Announce the business to come before the board in its proper order;
- C. Enforce the board's policies relating to the order of business and the conduct of meetings;
- D. Recognize persons who desire to speak, and protect the speaker who has the floor from disturbance or interference;
- E. Explain what the effect of a motion would be if it is not clear to every member;
- F. Restrict discussion to the question when a motion is before the board;
- G. Answer all parliamentary inquiries, referring questions of law to the board's attorney;
- H. Put motions to a vote, stating definitely and clearly the vote and result thereof.

The president shall have the right, as other board members have, to offer resolutions, to discuss questions, and to vote.

Vice President

The vice president shall preside in the absence of the president. The vice president shall perform the duties and obligations of the president in the absence of the president. The vice president shall perform such other duties as may be assigned by the board.

In the absence of both the president and the vice president at board meetings the senior member of the board shall carry on the duties of the board president.

The board secretary opens the reorganization meeting and presides over the election of the president which is done annually by a majority roll call vote. The newly elected president then takes charge of the meeting and begins with the new vice president's election followed by his/her appointments for all the board positions prescribed by law and/or board policy.
